

Summer 2018 Scholarships cover:

- Camp tuition -Snacks -Materials (as needed) for camp.
- Before and after care, as needed (the guardian will still need to contact the office to make arrangements)

Does not cover lunches—scholarship students are still expected to bring a lunch from home

Children who have never attended CTW:

1. Guardians must indicate financial need—provide proof of income (such as most recent pay stubs).
2. Applying child must complete a 100 word or more essay on why they want to attend a summer program at CTW (children who are not yet able to write may submit a taped essay). Please also include basic information: name, age, grade, contact information, which camp(s) you're applying for. If you are applying for multiple camps, please indicate order of preference.
3. The board will review and vote on who will receive the scholarship no later than four weeks before the start of the camp.

Current Students at CTW:

1. Must indicate financial need and/or hardship guidelines
2. Have been a CTW student for 2 concurring semesters.
3. Complete a 100 word or more essay on what being part of the CTW family has meant to them (children who are not yet able to write may submit a taped essay). Please also include basic information: name, age, grade, contact information, which camp(s) you're applying for. If you are applying for multiple camps, please indicate order of preference.
4. The board will review and vote on who will receive the scholarship no later than four weeks before the start of the camp.

Please Note: If a child has received a CTW scholarship during the 2017-18 school year, they will need to apply separately for the Summer 2018 scholarships. Receiving a 2017-18 school year scholarship does not disqualify or provide special consideration for the Summer 2018 scholarships.

*Hardship: Loss of family income, illness or death of family member.
