

Applicants who have never attended CTW:

1. Guardians must indicate financial need—provide proof of income (such as most recent pay stubs).
2. Applying student must complete a 100 word or more essay on why they want to be part of CTW (children who are not yet able to write may submit a taped essay). Please also include basic information: name, age, grade, contact information, and what classes they are requesting scholarship funds for.
3. The board will review and vote on who will receive the scholarship:

Two scholarships per semester will be awarded for: Early Stages (Ages 5-6), Players Company (ages 7-9), Ensemble (Ages 10-12), and Teen Company (Ages 13-18).

If a child is awarded a scholarship the first semester and no one applies for the second semester they will be able to attend the second semester on scholarship. However, if scholarships are applied for they will have to resubmit.

Current Students at CTW:

1. Guardians must indicate financial need—provide proof of income (such as most recent pay stubs), OR meet hardship guidelines*
2. Have been a CTW student for two (2) concurring semesters.
3. Applying student must complete a 100 word or more essay on what being part of the CTW family has meant to them (children who are not yet able to write may submit a taped essay). Please also include basic information: name, age, grade, contact information, and what classes they are requesting scholarship funds for.
4. The board will review and vote on who will receive the scholarship

One (1) per semester for each company: Early Stages (Ages 5-6), Players Company (ages 7-9), Ensemble (Ages 10-12), and Teen Company (Ages 13-18).

*Hardship: Loss of family income, illness or death of family member.

Until a child has been a paid student for 2 full semesters they will not be considered for scholarship as a “current” student.
